On a Healthy Diet

Everywhere she went, it seemed as if she was surrounded by unhealthy food. From the dining hall pizza to the coffee shop past every corner, it was hard for her to eat healthy every day.

Essay on Healthy food in English
Food is what we eat to have the energy to work. Food can be of two type-healthy and unhealthy food. Unhealthy food is junk food like burgers, pizza or chips.

How to Stay Healthy

Have you ever wondered why it's so difficult to get kids to eat their vegetables? Not wanting to eat broccoli is rooted in a great deal of more complicated issues than just not liking green food. How we come to like certain foods is associated with many factors and is referred to as food preferences.

Food health

For years now, the food and beverage industry has used this knowledge to their advantage and encouraged the development of unhealthy food preferences in children of all ages through various marketing and advertising techniques.

Regulation—or lack thereof

The marketing of food to children on media is unregulated in the US. Instead, major food and beverage manufacturers have voluntarily pledged to limit child-directed marketing of unhealthy foods as part of the Children's Food and Beverage Advertising

Parents need to look carefully at nutrition labels when selecting commercial toddler foods and infant or toddler snacks, desserts, and juice drinks. Choose products lower in added sugar and sodium. Get tips here for taming your child's sweet tooth in a world of sugary treats.

The Problem Continues as Children Grow
Older children are bombarded with advertisements through every existing marketing vehicle. Walk through any supermarket and notice where the children's cereal is located. It invariably sits on a stand just a child's eye level.

Nutrition for health

More energy with foods rich in iron! Prevent iron deficiency (anemia) by eating red meat and chicken that have good iron absorption. Other good sources include legumes such as beans and lentils, and leafy vegetables.

Food marketing and media use

Children are also exposed to countless ads on TV, streaming services through video games, social media, and most internet websites.

What Parents Can Do

Parents need to be well-informed about the potential negative health consequences of most current food marketing practices.

How to prepare

Desserts are usually eaten as a side dish and there are a lot of which are easy to make. They are dessert cake, jellies, biscuits, cakes, cookies and buns.
